SOURCE

1. Several categories of reservists, including former regular army officers, reserve officers, and members of the Rumanian Workers Party, have been ordered mobilized for sixty days. In some instances the reservists were ordered to report for duty within twenty-four or forty-eight hours.
2. An unspecified number of employees of the Rumanian State Railroads (CFR) have received mobilization orders.
3. The Ministry of Planning has received a list of its employees who will be mobilized, in order that it may make provision for this replacement.
4. According to one report, the great majority of individuals mobilized have been under surveillance by the State Security Police because of their contacts and activities. Lists of those to be mobilized are said to have been presented to the General Staff by General Alexander Nicholsch of the State Security Police.
